⁴ In the same markup, the Committee addressed business concerns in part by providing that an employee who takes leave for family or medical reasons, when the leave is foreseeable, must make a reasonable effort to schedule the leave so that it does not “unduly disrupt” the operations of the employer. H.R. Rep. No. 99-699, pt. 2 at 26 (August 8, 1986).
